Matthew 1:18-25

Responses & Reactions

- What disturbed you, challenged you, or intrigued you in this week's message?

Digging Deeper

- For many people, the conquest narratives (recorded in the book of Joshua) are one of the most difficult parts of the Bible to read. How does reading backward from Jesus, the new and better Joshua (Yeshua), change our understanding of the significance of those Old Testament stories?

Bringing it Home

- Who are the Canaanites in your life, those you are most likely to pray "God, save me from..."?
- How easy or difficult is it for you to see what you need to be saved from in yourself? Thinking of your relationship specifically with whatever "Canaanites" you just mentioned, what sin or darkness in yourself may you need Jesus to save you from?
