Responses & Reactions

- Did anything in this week's message make you uncomfortable? If so, what and why?

Digging Deeper

- Re-read James 1:27. Why do you think James identifies these two behaviors as core components of "true devotion" (or "pure religion")? How do they relate to each other?
- What does Jesus contribute to our understanding of what justice is? What does Jesus say or do specifically that shapes our understanding of what it looks like to be in right relationship with others?

Bringing it Home

- Where is acting justly and righteously a challenge in your life right now? What do you owe someone else that you are struggling to truly give?
- What would it look like this week for you to go "beyond" justice this week as Jesus does, practicing radical generosity or advantaging someone else even over yourself?
