Digging Deeper

- In what ways does the story of Paul's shipwreck serve as a kind of climax and summary of the primary storyline of the book of Acts?
- Compare Luke 22:14-20 and Acts 27:33-38. What do you think Luke intended to convey with this image of Paul breaking bread in the middle of the storm? What is he suggesting communion is about?

Bringing it Home

- How aware do you feel at this point in your life of your need for rescue? Explain your answer.
- Re-read Acts 27:21-26. What might it look like if God used you, like Paul, as a conduit of grace to others? Who else is "on your ship" who might be covered by God's favor as it rests on you?
