Responses & Reactions

- What disturbed you, challenged you, or intrigued you in this week's message?

Digging Deeper

- How do you think Jesus teaches and demonstrates that evil can be overcome? Why do you think so many Jesus-followers through history have chosen methods different from his?
- Jesus tells his followers that just as he faced opposition to his ministry, they should expect to face opposition when they act in line with God's purposes. What does this opposition look like in your place and time?

Bringing it Home

- In what way is following Jesus a daily act of walking into death? What has died in you or in your life as a result of following Jesus?
- Where or how are you being invited to practice suffering love as a part of participating in God's work of overcoming evil?
