Inside Out: Your Own Apocalypse

Mark 12:28-31

Responses and Reactions

What disturbed you, challenged you, or intrigued you in this week's message?

Digging Deeper

Read Luke 6:31. People regularly conflate the message of this passage with the one from Mark. How are they similar and how are they different?

Where can the idea that it is necessary to love yourself as a prerequisite to truly loving others go wrong?

-How do most people define what love looks like?

-How should Christians define what love looks like?

Bringing It Home

Have you ever previously been asked about whether you truly love yourself? After following the practices given in the sermon, how would you review the love you have for yourself?

What changes might you make so that your love for yourself is more in line with the way Jesus loved others: offering grace, calling to repentance, and showing a better way to be human?
